

Websites for Teachers

*Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historical Site
Post-Visit Resources*

Buffalo History Works: A Souvenir of the Pan-American Exposition

<http://www.buffalohistoryworks.com/panamex/>

This site tells the history of the Pan-American Exposition, including the local history (with images) of Buffalo, NY 1901, where President McKinley was assassinated and Theodore Roosevelt took the presidential oath of office. The site also explores the reasons why Buffalo, NY was chosen as the site of the exposition, and it includes information about McKinley's assassination.

“Doing the Pan”

<http://panam1901.bfn.org/>

A site filled with images of the Pan-American Exposition of 1901, in Buffalo, NY. The site provides images and information on the exposition exhibitions, restaurants, planning and layout, restaurants, souvenirs, tickets, 1901 newspaper articles, and other aspects of the exposition experience. Offers “guided tours” of the exposition in the form of themed slide shows with helpful text.

Illuminations: Revisiting the Pan-American Exposition of 1901

<http://ublib.buffalo.edu/libraries/exhibits/panam/index.html>

This website created by the University at Buffalo Libraries features primary source documents, essays, “exhibits” with explanatory text and images, and related web links, all organized by themes such as “electricity and technology” and “the immigrant experience.”

The Miller Center American President Online Reference Resource: Theodore Roosevelt

<http://millercenter.org/academic/americanpresident/roosevelt>

Part of the University of Virginia's Miller Center for Public Affairs American President project, this set of essays on TR includes a menu page with at-a-glance facts, as well as essays on his life, work, and impact before, during, and after the presidency, and essays on individual members of his administration.

National Child Labor Committee Collection of Photographs

<http://lcweb2.loc.gov/pp/nclhtml/nclsubjindex1.html>

This subject index page of the Library of Congress' National Child Labor Committee Collection of Photographs allows for easy browsing of the online collection of images.

Pan-American Exposition, 1901-2001

<http://www.nps.gov/archive/thri/PanAmExhibit.htm>

Explore the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historic Site's collection of images and artifacts from the Pan-American Exposition of 1901, including a map of the exposition layout.

“The President is Coming”

<http://www.nps.gov/archive/thri/The%20President%20is%20Coming.htm>

This page within the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural National Historic Site website tells the story of the initial excitement over President McKinley’s visit to the Pan-American Exposition, and the evolving story of the assassination attempt, the president’s death, and national mourning of McKinley, including images of headlines and front pages from 1901 newspapers.

Teacher’s Guide: Theodore Roosevelt 26th President

http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/amex/presidents/26_t_roosevelt/tguide/index.html

Online curriculum guide, including background information, timeline, suggested activities, discussion questions, glossary, quotes, speeches, and letters from PBS’ American Experience series The Presidents. Also includes an interactive online activity exploring key issues of TR’s presidency and gives students the opportunity to vote on those issues and to see a current poll of all online votes.

Theodore Roosevelt Association

<http://www.theodoreroosevelt.org/>

The Theodore Roosevelt Association’s website includes a biographical essay by Tweed Roosevelt, a photographic biography, timeline of TR’s life, quotations, cartoons, speech texts, and an encyclopedia of TR-related content.

Theodore Roosevelt Center

<http://www.theodorerooseveltcenter.com/>

Based at Dickinson State University, this Theodore Roosevelt Initiative website provides biographical information, photos, cartoons, timelines, video clips, bibliographies, and a growing online collection of digitized documents related to TR.

Theodore Roosevelt National Park

<http://www.nps.gov/thro>

Quotes, background information, and photos related to TR’s time as a rancher in the Dakotas and his later work to preserve the natural environment.

The White House Presidential Biography of TR

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/presidents/TheodoreRoosevelt/>

Brief official biography of the 26th president of the United States.